Helpful Hints:

- The provided “Year Plans” are to be utilized as a guideline, not as a required course map.
- There are two required semesters of the PSY 672/PSY 672A or PSY 673/PSY 673A Spanish Language & Culture course.
- The second Spanish Language & Culture course may be taken at the Irvine campus or in a Latin American country through the Immersion Program.
- There are three required semesters of practicum which are best taken in sequence and pre-practicum is required before beginning practicum. Students who are providing services in Spanish in the community need to enroll in the Bilingual Practicum course.
- Students may be required to take classes at different campuses in order to accommodate their desired schedule.

 PSY 673A Course is available in Irvine or abroad through immersion program.
